The 13th Annual Midwest Kid Fest

Be a part of our annual celebration by participating in this one-day festival for kids and families. This free, family-friendly event is well attended because it provides:

1. A positive interactive setting for family recreation.
2. Community awareness of educational services and opportunities available to area children.
3. All of these fun things:

- |           |          |                     |
|-----------|----------|---------------------|
| * Art     | * Games  | * Hands-on Projects |
| * Music   | * Food   | * Petting Zoo       |
| * Theater | * Clowns | * Magic Shows       |

Don't miss this chance to let thousands of area families see you or your group in action!

All adult groups, youth groups, educators and artists are invited to participate.

Increase your visibility! Educate kids and parents! Recruit new members! Strut your stuff!
It's easy:

1. Fill out the proposal form on the next page.
2. Think of a game or activity for your booth or call us – we'll give you an idea.
3. Find volunteers to facilitate your activity.
4. Enclose your booth fee ($50 – $125). All booths must provide a free activity.
